CASE NO. T-0365

DECISION NO. 86-07

ORDER DENYING MOTION

FOR REHEARING

On November 1, 1985, PELRB entered into a unanimous decision whereby it granted a modification of the existing unit in the City of Manchester School System which removed the principals and assistant principals from the teachers unit, and ordered an election to be held to determine if the principals and assistant principals wish to be represented by the Manchester Education Association, NEA-NH, the Manchester School Administrators Association or "No Representative".

Pursuant to PELRB's corrected decision dated August 27, 1985, which PELRB stayed to allow it to act on requests for findings of fact and rulings of law, an election was held and the Manchester Education Association, NEA-NH certified as the exclusive representative.

Counsel for the Board of School Committee filed a Motion for Rehearing stating that PELRB's decision was unreasonable and unjust and an abuse of its discretion.

Careful consideration was given to all exhibits and evidence given at hearings in this matter, therefore, PELRB reaffirms its original decision and ORDERS that the Motion for Rehearing be and the same hereby is DENIED.

Signed this 17th day of January, 1986.
